

Brad Glosserman

Visiting Researcher, Sungkyun Institute for Global Strategy (SIGS)

updated: January 2021

Professional Career

present Deputy Director and Visiting Professor, Center for Rule-making Strategies, Tama University.
2018-present Senior Advisor, Pacific Forum, Center for Strategic and International Studies.
2004-2017 Executive Director, Pacific Forum, Center for Strategic and International Studies.
2014-present English Language Editor, New Asia, New Asia Research Institute.

Education

JD, George Washington University National Law Center.
MA, Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS).
BA, Reed College.

Fields of Interests

U.S. Foreign Policy, Asian Security Relations.

Publications

2019 Peak Japan: The End of Grand Ambitions (Georgetown University Press)
2015 The Japan-ROK Identity Clash (Columbia University Press) (with Scott Snyder)
2004 The Future of U.S.-Korea-Japan Relations: Balancing Values and Interests (Pacific Forum) (Editor)